CON BRIO CHORAL SOCIETY, INC.

Formed in 1997, Con Brio is a self-supporting, non-profit corporation. Funding is received from membership dues, concert ticket sales, program advertisements, donations and grants. Con Brio prides itself on presenting interesting, quality performances of great choral music.

Our Membership and Our Audience

Con Brio is a classical, auditioned, chorus with close to 70 choristers. It is known for the variety of its repertoire, sparkling programming and excellent musicality. Con Brio performs three concerts annually to a growing and loyal local audience of more than 1,200 people annually – primarily mature active shoreline and Connecticut River Valley residents with interest in the arts, culture and quality performances. Members represent 16 towns from Branford to Mystic Connecticut. Con Brio performs with a professional orchestra and soloists.

Awards & Grants

Con Brio has been awarded support from the CT Office of the Arts and Choral Arts of New England, and is a proud member of Chorus America, Association of CT Choruses and the American Choral Directors Association.

2018 European Tour

Con Brio has made six overseas concert tours and will be performing in Croatia in the early summer of 2018.
