Why advertise with Con Brio?

Reach an Engaged and Loyal Audience

Your business will be seen by more than 1,400 concert patrons each year through our Christmas and Spring performances, as well as by nearly 90 singers and 30 instrumental musicians who regularly view our programs. Audience data shows that most attendees are age 50 and older—a demographic known for supporting local businesses and community organizations.

Connect with Shoreline Communities

Con Brio members and patrons come from 14 Connecticut towns, including Deep River, Chester, Essex, Old Saybrook, Clinton, Madison, Guilford, Old Lyme, East Lyme, and Groton. With rehearsals in Old Saybrook and performances in Clinton and Deep River, Con Brio maintains a strong presence across the shoreline.

Be Featured in an Award-Winning Program

Our Christmas 2023 concert program, printed by Essex Printing, received the Pinnacle Award from the Print Industries of New England. Your advertisement will appear in a professionally produced publication that many patrons keep as a lasting memento of the concert experience.

Support Exceptional Choral Music

Your advertisement helps sustain one of the shoreline's unique cultural organizations. Con Brio is the region's only all-audition volunteer chorus performing with a professional orchestra and vocal soloists. Our Sunday concerts have sold out consistently for more than a decade, reflecting the enthusiasm and support of our community.

Thank you for considering an advertisement with Con Brio. Your partnership helps us continue bringing outstanding choral music to our shoreline communities while offering meaningful visibility for your business.
